2006 dedicated and driven youths finished strong and emerged as graduates of the Lagos State Employability Support Project at the graduation ceremony last week Friday.

Recognizing that the end of a phase marks the beginning of another, the Lagos State Employment Trust Fund and United Nations Development Programme awarded the graduands certificates of completion, and some received startup kits to help them launch their careers on the right foot.

We are inspired to do more, and we are not resting on our oars.

To our dear graduates, we are incredibly proud of you, and we wish you remarkable success in all you do!

That's our roundup! See you next week. ✨

Remember, we are always rooting for you.
